Praise & Prayer

Thank the Lord for his promises

Praise the Lord for his protection during this busy harvest season

Pray for the Community Volunteer Fire Department as they deal with tragedies and often place themselves in harm's way.

Pray for those in our community who are grieving the loss of loved ones.

Pray for the students in schools and universities around our country as they face unprecedented challenges in their learning environments. Pray that our children and youth may stay strong and true to the work of God.

Pray for our nation as we face very uncertain times, that the Christian church would have courage and discernment

Pray for our church leadership as they seek creative ways to serve and encourage the congregation.

Pray for Sunny and Sumaira and other Christian refugees around the world facing persecution every day
